

Payroll giving for HR & Payroll teams

What is it?

Payroll giving is a straightforward system which allows employees to donate to charity, directly from their gross pay.

Once you have connected with a Government-approved payroll giving agency, the donations simply come out every time payroll is run.

Benefits

- Boosts your Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) offering
- Demonstrates care and commitment to your employees, which can improve staff morale and motivation
- Easy to implement using a Government-approved payroll giving agency.
- Gain employer recognition via Quality Mark Awards

samh.org.uk

SAMH (Scottish Action for Mental Health) is a Scottish charity (no. SC-008897) and company limited by guarantee (no. SC082340).

We're set up with a payroll giving agency

Great! Here are some recommendations:

- Include a payroll giving form with your induction pack for new employees, reviewing this regularly to ensure it's up to date and straightforward
- Make sure the form is readily accessible for all staff. Can you save it on your intranet?
- Incentivise staff engagement by offering matched funding, demonstrating the business's commitment to charity
- Have a look at our tips for promoting payroll giving

We haven't set this up yet

Follow these steps:

- Choose a provider from the Government-approved list of payroll giving agencies – we can receive donations from any
- It typically takes about a month to get set up
- Have a look at our tips for promoting payroll giving, so you're ready to go when it's set up